Privacy Policy for Customers

It is a part of TheatreLAB's core values that we will properly value and protect any information entrusted to us about our customers. This policy describes how we will safeguard personal and company information, to ensure peace of mind when dealing with TheatreLAB.

It is our policy that:

- TheatreLAB will collect only that information about customers which is needed and relevant.
- TheatreLAB will not disclose information to other parties unless customers have been properly notified of such a disclosure.
- TheatreLAB will strive to make certain that information about customers is kept accurate and up-to-date.
- TheatreLAB will use appropriate controls to ensure that this information is kept secure, and is only viewed or used by the proper personnel.
- TheatreLAB will comply with applicable laws, regulations, and industry standards when protecting employee information.
- We hold our employees, vendors, contractors, suppliers, and trading partners to meet this same set of policies.
